“ Sandy,
I am so sorry for your losing your mother. Losing a parent is one of the hardest things we all have to bear sometime. Please know that I am here for you anytime you need to talk.
All My Sympathy,
Sandy

“ Gramma...where do i begin? Im gonna miss u so very much. I remember when i was little i would call u Mom. I always liked going to your house. Jason and I would always have so much fun there. You are a one in a million person. Bj said he remembers him and Trav going to the house and u would make them ham and cheese sandwiches. Life seems to just go by so fast. I will carry you in my heart forever. Watch over all of us. I know that you are with your other family now I am sad but i know that you are happy now. I will see you when i get there. Love you Gramma

“ She was a simple, kindhearted, and loving mother and grandmother. Her children were proud to call her mom and I am proud to call her my mother in law. She will be sadly missed, but is resting in peace, till we all meet again and see her beautiful face!
