

Alice Maria Shew

January 28, 1962 - July 2, 2021

Alice Shew, 59 of Waynesboro, passed away suddenly on Friday, July 2, 2021 at York Hospital. She was born January 28, 1962 in Waynesboro, PA, the daughter of Kathleen (Bricker) Woodring and the late Arthur Woodring. Alice leaves behind the love of her life and husband, Jeff Shew, who she married on May 16, 2006 but always thought of her as his wife for the 37 years they were together. She also leaves her mother, to whom she was extremely dedicated and loved to take care of, Kathleen Woodring, her beloved son, Kenny Grissinger and his wife, Ashley, adored granddaughter, Bristol "Lady Bug" Elyzabeth Grissinger, two brothers, Woody Robert Woodring, Carrol Woodring, a sister, Anna (Woodring) Rowe and numerous nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles. In addition to her father, Arthur Woodring, she was preceded in death by her brother, Kenneth Woodring and sister, Kay Woodring. Her absolute favorite activity was spending time, especially pool time, with her affectionately nicknamed granddaughter, "Lady Bug" who was her pride and joy. In her earlier years, she enjoyed camping and later being a thrifty shopper, visiting flea markets, yard sales as well as having a vast collection of Old World Temptations. Alice will be missed and fondly remembered. A Memorial Service to celebrate Alice's life will be held at a later date.
