

Barbara G. Kriechbaum (Grove)

April 3, 1939 - September 29, 2013

Barbara G Kriechbaum is the loving wife of Casimer B Kriechbaum Jr and mother of 2 son's Casimer B. Kriechbaum III and Eric R Kriechbaum. Barb was a proud grandmother of Emily Kriechbaum, Ashley Patrick, Connor Kriechbaum, Chase Kriechbaum and Anna Kriechbaum. She also has two great grandchildren Pierce and Micah. Barb is in spirit mother to so many more friends and coworkers. She loved so many people and cared for so many more. Barb tried her best to carry everyone's burden's and lift their spirits. She was truly an angel on earth with her caring spirit and loving attitude. Barb loved to cook and try and make everyone fat from her delicious treats. Barb was taken from this earth so very quickly and had so many plans for the future. The family will try to fulfill her future plans and dreams without her but in her spirit these dreams will live. Barb would want contributions to the Lutheran Church or American Heart Association in lieu of flowers because she felt deeply about both. The family will be greeting guests from 12:30-1:30 on Wed. Oct 2, 2013 at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Waynesboro. The memorial service will start at 1:30p.m.

“ So many memories...what a privilege to have worked with such a great lady! She loved what she did at HBC and we all had such fun. She was never afraid to tell me what she thought and I always appreciated that--even when we disagreed. Barb was one of the great legacies of our school. God bless you all, hold fast to the great memories you have and allow God to use them to bring you comfort and peace.
