“ Thinking of you always, please come visit me in my dreams momma I miss you so so so much. It's unfair that you are gone. I wish you were here with us.

“ It's been quite a while since I wrote to you on here. It doesn't mean I don't think about you every single day. I was in tears the other night thinking about how you used to braid my hair, i could literally feel you doing it. Oh how I miss it so much. It's not fair little Maddie never even got the chance to meet you. You'd absolutely love her to pieces. Laykin is getting big and bad. She looks so similar to you when you were young even Susie says so. It makes me sad knowing you aren't here to see them do all the things they have been doing. Football and cheer. I had a video today of them practicing and you were the first person I wanted to send it to. It's not fair that you aren't here. It's not fair that you were taken away from me. I miss you so much momma. No matter how many fights and stuff we got in and arguments I know that you loved me and I loved you even more. I dont know how people live like this without their moms. I just don't know when it will even not feel like a piece of me is completely gone. You gave me life, and you aren't here to with me to spend it with. I hate that you are gone, it makes me so mad at the world at everything. I miss you and I love you and I wish you could come back but i know that's impossible. But I don't care I still wish for it all the time. I wish for dreams of you. I get them occasionally I know it's you letting me know everything is okay. I really want to know that you are still out there somewhere waiting to see us again. I love you I love you I love you.

“ With thanksgiving being tomorrow I can't help but be sad that you are going to miss it. Since you've been gone it hasn't gotten any easier to know that you aren't here. I find myself thinking of things you would say to anything going on in my life. These past few days when I was sick I know you would've had something to tell me to do and how to feel better and what it could've been. I feel sad that I don't get to talk to you about these things anymore. 😞 I really really miss you mom. I love you, and I hope you know just how much I miss you.

“ I haven't wrote to you in a while here. I try to do it once a month. It's been about 2. I still think about you every day. I love you so much, and miss you. Every single thing happens I want to just call you and tell you about. I wish I could, I miss your voice. I still listen to the 2 voicemails I have of you and I can just hear your voice in my head too. There is nothing more that I want but to be able to see you again. I wish I got the chance to at least say goodbye. I just wish I could've done something. I wish I would've at least got to spend some time with you. Everything happened so fast. There was no time for anything. It kills me every day. I'm jealous of all the people who at least got to say goodbye. We were robbed of that momma, and it's not fair. I wish you could be here right now and see how far we have come. The kids remind me of things about you that I have told them or if they see pictures of you they say hey that's Mimi. You were supposed to see me grow up and I was supposed to take care of you when you got old. Now I'm going to get old without you here 😞
😞 I love you.

“ I miss you more and more each day that passes. I don't know that it will ever get easier. I just want go be able to talk to you again to hear your voice after I say 'mother' and you say 'yes daughter' I want to be able to bug you about stupid stuff and ask you about medical questions. I want to send you pictures of your beautiful, smart, and amazing g-babies. They miss you. They ask about you still frequently. Laykin reminds me that you are gone a lot I don't think she quite understands but she also is obsessed with graveyards (which luckily you aren't there) and she also talks about dying. I wish I knew what to tell her, I wish I knew if you were out there. I feel as though you definitely are. I can feel you around when I think of things we used to do or when I do something and it would be something you'd say 'Alexis stop it' to. Or when you would cuss over something crazy and we would just laugh. I miss you mom, I still can't believe that you aren't here with us anymore. I love you.

“ Please come visit me in my dreams. I miss you so much. 😭 you were supposed to be here to meet Madelyn and to spend so many more years with me. 😭😭

Alexis Wise - May 13, 2022 at 12:27 AM

“ Laying here thinking about our memories. The more I think the more and more I miss you. I want you

To come visit me in my dreams, I have so much I'd like to talk to you about. I miss you, I keep waiting to answer a call or text from you even though it's not going to happen. Normally I am able to control the crying spells but tonight is not one of those nights. All day I've been thinking about you, constantly. I would love just one more long talk with you. 😭 I feel sometimes I took how long you'd be here for granted. I expected you to grow old and me needing to take care of you as you've done for me. I never expected that you would be gone already. I don't know how I've made it this long without and I never want anyone to feel the pain of losing a mother. It's horrible, heartbreaking, and just terrible. I just want my mommy so badly tonight. I miss you and I love you so much.
