

Carol B. Barnhart (Campbell)

January 13, 1944 - April 5, 2015

Carol Barbara Barnhart, 71, of Chambersburg passed away on Sun., April 5, 2015 at the Chambersburg Hospital. She was born Jan. 13, 1944 in Chambersburg, the daughter of the late Clarence and Jeannette (Strickler) Campbell. Carol was a 1961 graduate of C.A.S.H.S. and attended Shippensburg College. She worked at the Stanley Co. as a Seamstress for many years and then took time to stay home and raise a family. She later went back to work at the Chambersburg Trust Company. She was an avid reader of all types of books, loved the animals that she fed in her yard and was fond of all types of needle work, from knitting and crocheting to cross-stitching. She is survived by her husband, Leon Barnhart, to whom she was married for 46 years; a daughter, Jennifer Arendt, wife of Barry; brother Richard Campbell, husband of Sherry; four nieces and one nephew. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Edward Campbell. There will be a memorial service held at 11 a.m. on Sat., April 11, 2015 at the W.F. Sellers Funeral Home with the Rev. Patricia Arendt officiating. Memorial donations may be made to the charity of your choice. “ Dear Family,
We all long for comfort in the face of death. One sure source of comfort can be found in the Bible. Such comfort as Revelation 21:4; " God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be any more, the former things have passed away."
Many have found comfort in the Bibles promise of the resurrection.
One true source of comfort.
Sincerely Yours, Judy L.
