“ Dear Family,
"May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God."-2CORINTHIANS 1:2-4; God does comfort us with the grand resurrection hope when he says in REVELATION 21:4;" And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more the former things have passed away." What a God of tender mercies!
Sincerely Yours, Judy L.

“ Larry and family,
I am extremely sorry for you loss of Annie. She was a wonderful person to me. I enjoyed every moment that I was there and enjoyed so many conversations with her. I think of you all as my family. She will forever live in everyone's heart and memory.

“ It was a pleasure and a privilege to care for Ann these past months. I will always remember her beautiful smile that was so freely offered. She was an amazing woman who was blessed with a husband and family that adored her. Rest in peace Ann, I'll miss you.
