

Catharyn E Cook (Harrison)

December 9, 1915 - June 24, 2015

Catharyn Elizabeth Harrison Cook, 99 years old, of Chambersburg, passed away June 23, 2015 at the Penn Hall Nursing Center where she had resided for a number of years. She was born on December 9, 1915 in Marion, PA to Herbert and Emma Jane Harrison. She was married for fifty years to Warren D. Cook who died in 1990. She was a member of the Salem Lutheran Church in Marion, PA. Katy was a devoted mother, mother-in-law, and grandmother. She loved to sew, cook, and bake for her family and friends. She enjoyed square dancing, traveling with her husband and friends, crossword puzzles, and family gatherings. She would welcome visitors with a meal even when "there was nothing in the house to eat." Katy will be remembered by her family for her smiling face, calm demeanor and her sticky buns. Katy is survived by her sons, Charles Frederick (Fred) Cook of Baltimore, and Joseph Cook (husband of Kathy) of Collegeville, PA; grandson Grant D. Cook (husband of Jensen) of Cary, NC; and granddaughter Paige E. Cook, of Collegeville, PA. Katy was preceded in death by her brothers, Robert, Paul, and Harold Harrison; and sisters, Mabel Dymond and Janet Hege. A celebration of her life service will be held at the Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church, 99 Miller Road, Chbg., PA 17201 at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, June 29, 2015. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service. Burial will be in Lincoln Cemetery In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church or to the Salvation Army. “ Dear Cook family,
I am very sorry for your loss. The Bible gives us a wonderful hope for the future. Death, sickness and pain are not things that Jehovah God intended for mankind. But soon the Bible promises that death will be done away with (Revelation 21:4) We can have confidence in all the Bible's promises.
