

Dr. Cheryl Linette Dickason

March 20, 1953 - December 28, 2022

Cheryl Linette Dickason born to Clarence Dickason and Helen Hayes Dickason on March 20, 1953 in Washington, D.C. died suddenly Dec 28, 2022 at Holy Spirit Hospital in Pennsylvania. She was 69 years old. The family is deeply saddened and shocked by her unexpected death.

Dr. Cheryl Dickason is predeceased by her father Clarence Dickason Sr., mother Helen Dickason, and brother Clarence Dickason Jr.

Her surviving relatives include sister Nicole; her niece Chrissy and nephew Czakar; her great nephews Rashon, Joshua and Caleb; and her great great nephew and nieces Jamari , Jordan, and Zailyn.

A true Washingtonian, as she would tell anyone who asked, after graduating as Valedictorian from high school she chose to complete her undergraduate degree at Howard University majoring in Zoology. She then left her familiar roots behind to attend the University of Michigan Medical School from 1975-1979 and graduate with honors. After earning her medical degree, she served in the United States Public Health Corps from 1979-1981. She later completed residency in Internal Medicine and Emergency Medicine. Dr. Cheryl Dickason continued to thrive academically and professionally. During her stellar and illustrious 42-year career as a Board-Certified Emergency Medicine Physician she worked at multiple hospitals to include Fairmount Regional Medical Center, Greater Baltimore Medical Center, Uniontown Hospital and Penn Highland Hospital. Her dedication, kindness, and compassion enabled her to be an outstanding physician tirelessly working towards providing unrivaled quality patient care to all those in need.

Sellers Funeral Home & Cremation Services, Chambersburg, assisted the family with arrangements. A memorial service will be held privately for family and close friends.
