“ Such a sweet woman I am glad our paths crossed because of Connie and Max! I shared a memory with Corinne of us visiting with her 2x to get one of the boys beds when she was about 3 yrs old. Even though she is gone way to soon, the lord has a purpose and plan and one sweet day you will be reunited - praying for the families now and in the days ahead as you grieve, find your new way and continue to cherish her memory forever!💜

“ Cheryl and I grew up in Fayetteville, PA. We were teenage friends and eventually married brothers. We used to joke that we married brothers to ensure we always stayed close. We raised our children together and did everything together. After we divorced the brothers that were to be our life long connection, we grew apart. This is a regret I will have to live with. We left our friendship slip away. Cheryl, you will always live in my heart. Smile down on us from heaven my friend.
