“ I had made a "map" of walmart with the different aisles and such showing where you would get most anything - from canned soup to aspirin. Connie would note what things we needed by each section in red ink, and I would cross them off in green ink as I put them in my shopping cart. We were such a team. Now I am about to print out one of those shopping list forms and do the first shopping without Connie to bring it all home to. What a treasure she was.

“ To Connie's Family, My sincerest heartfelt sympathy to you all. I had the honor of working with your dear Wife, Mother & Gradmother at Faust Jr. High School. Connie really cherished her students and wanted to see them all do well. She shared her love of history with my students too by bringing her slides of the ancient ruins of Peru. Through all our shared work with the children, Connie and I became friends. May God comfort you all as only He can. With love and prayers, Tina Jiles

“ Oh Connie! I remember how you used to enjoy visiting the White Squaw Mission over in Orrtanna. We would roam the cemetery or just sit in the pavilion. That's where we took that picture of Girlie Dog. You called her Shana Tova (Beautiful, Good) but I called her Golden Honey Sunshine Huggy Snuggly Lovey Doggy Girl. Tea with the queen, walk on the moon,.....bah! We had the best things you could have just being together. Thank you Father. Thank you Jesus. Hallelujah! Glory to God.
