PS

“ *Aunt Debbie was always there for me, and always helped me, like grandma, to advocate for myself, in all aspects of my health.
We shared many smiles, laughs, & tears as aunt & niece. She shared how when she got back at uncle Bobby one time as a kid, she sewed him into his bedsheet, bout laughed my butt off. Of course I shared my memories of Steve, jerry, & me growing up that she missed. I had her laughing a lot. Always would be like “oh shut up”
Bout my hair, when I would complain bout it.
Saying woman pay thousands of dollars to get the kind of hair that I have naturally. We were looking forward to playing a game of rummy, but alas, God & uncle Luke needed her more. R.I.P aunt Debbie, I hope your dancing in the sky*
