

Dolores W. McKay

July 30, 1936 - December 31, 2016

Dolores Tomaza (Williams) McKay 80, Chambersburg, passed away on Sat., Dec. 31, 2016 at the Chambersburg Hospital. Born July 30, 1936, in Millwood, VA, the daughter of the late Corinne (Randolph) and David T. Williams, Sr. She attended and graduated from St. Frances de Salles High School in Philadelphia. Dolores received her nursing license from New York State and thus, began her career as a Registered Nurse. It was there that she met her future husband, Rodney Edward McKay Sr. They were married in 1956. In August 1957, they welcomed first, their daughter Diane Marie, and in 1963 their son, Rodney Edward McKay, Jr. While working at Interfaith Hospital in Brooklyn, NY Dolores received her BA from St. Joseph College in 1979. Being a devout Catholic, she was very active in her church, St. Gregory's, and was a member of The Madonna Chorales Choir. An avid reader and a wiz at crosswords, she had a passion for traveling and visited several different countries. Dolores is survived by her daughter: Diane McKay Kemp, Alexandria, VA granddaughters: Yonique McKay, Hamstead, NY and Miranda McKay, Chambersburg, PA.; grandson: Ryan McKay, Chambersburg; great grandson: Danier Murphy; nephews: David and Eugene Rideout, Chambersburg, and a host of cousins, family and friends. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, a brother, and son. There will be a funeral service at 1PM on Fri., Jan. 6, 2017 at Corpus Christi with a visitation one hour prior at the church. Burial will be in Corpus Christi Cemetery. Online condolences may be expressed at www.sellersfuneralhome.com.

com

Tribute Wall

DR

“ Aunt Dee, you will surely be missed. But we know you are resting in the arms of the Lord. You are at peace now. No more pain and hospitals. Diane, the hurt and pain you feel right now, it won't last forever. Nothing can replace a mother's love, but take solace in knowing she'll always be with you. David & I love you.

David & Joan Rideout - January 11, 2017 at 12:00 AM