“ We have very fond memories of the years Don played bass guitar for us. We shared many laughs, tears, good times, and ministry opportunities together. It was especially enjoyable when his family joined us for our weekend concerts.

We regret we were not able to attend the memorial service for him and extend our condolences to you, his family. May you sense the comfort of The Lord as you walk through these difficult days.

Love you all,
Elwood, Viola, Karen, Dean, Vonnie, and Doneta
