“ I remember when Donna would bring James and Melissa to Sunday School class when they were tiny little tots. Melissa would have her two fingers in her mouth and we would ask Melissa if her fingers were vanilla or chocolate. Donna loved the Lord, her husband, her children, her grandchildren, and those around her. She had a calmness about her. May God surround her family as they journey through this sea of grief!

“ Donna helped me start my dental practice so many years ago. Almost 50 (Oct 20 1975). I am eternally grateful for her knowledge dedication and friendship to my patients and to me and my family. She made what can be a stressful experience for many (including the Dr) a pleasure. A dear friend . My condolences to Wayne James Mellissa and of course her grandchildren

“ Knew Donna in HS. Always a nice and good friend. Very low key, never made waves, quiet. Had lots of classes with her. So sorry for your loss. Be proud of her!

“ Wayne, James, and Melissa, we extend our sympathies to you and your families. You have lost a beautiful wife, mother and grammy. As the other grandmother, I know that she cherished her grandchildren. She attended most school activities and birthday events, usually coming with her camera to create precious memories. We know that she is in Heaven with her Jesus. And we know that it will be a day of celebration when we will all be together again in Heaven with our Lord and Savior. The Rosenberrys

“ Wayne, James, Melissa,
I am very sorry for your loss of your wife and mom. Donna and I were friends since high school. I will always remember her as a loving, compassionate, and caring person. She loved her family beyond measure. She is now a heavenly angel and hold her very close to you with your wonderful memories.

“ Wayne, James and Melissa,
I am praying that God comforts and carries you in the days ahead. We don't really say goodbye, we say till we meet again. Rejoice in knowing Donna is now healed and with all our family that are already in Heaven, and Jesus and our Lord. That is some reunion! I know how much you all meant to her. We always talked about our families, especially our grandchildren. Write down stories about Donna, so that they can always be remembered and passed on. I send my love and prayers to you all.
