“ Earl was a sweet and funny guy. He always made me laugh when I visited him and Elaine. Elaine once told me that he made her laugh everyday.

Although he and my dad were first cousins and I saw Earl often because he was our mail carrier, I didn't get to know him until I reached out to him when I started working on family genealogy a number of years ago. He shared information about my great uncles and great aunts. He also showed me the Bible that belonged to my 2x great grandfather. I cherish the time I spent with him and Elaine. He will be missed!
