

Holly Michelle White

June 3, 1993 - February 15, 2017

Holly Michielle (Ragsdale) White, an extraordinary young woman, but an even better mother, wife, daughter, and sister passed away on February 15, 2017. Preceded in death by a son, Isaiah Rhett White, father, Daniel Ragsdale, maternal grandparents, Rhea Suplick Nagorski and Walter Suplick, and paternal grandparents, Mary and Rhett Ragsdale. Survived by her loving husband, Joshua White, and the real joy of her life, her daughter, Lilly-Jane Raven White. She is also survived by her mother, Cathleen Ragsdale, mother in law, Patricia Reese, father in law, Martin White, sisters, Beth Richards, Angela Ragsdale, and Danielle Ragsdale, a brother, Walter Ragsdale, along with eight nieces and four nephews. Born June 3, 1993, in Allentown, Pennsylvania, Holly was an accomplished artist, photographer, dancer, student, and passionate advocate for social justice. She had a brilliant mind and a dazzling personality that allowed her to make friends easily, and often. Yet, Holly also suffered from a disease that sought to warp her sense of self-worth, the disease of addiction. Holly's family is grateful that during the last three months of her life, she was able to enjoy spending time with the people she loved the most, doing the things she loved the most. She was as courageous as she was tenacious, and Holly would want all of us to know: Bernie would of beat him. A memorial service will be held Friday, February 24, at 11:00 AM, at William F. Sellers Funeral Home. Online condolences may be expressed at www.SellersFuneralHome.com.

“ Holly was a former neighbor, who quickly became a friend. She was full of life, vivacious, with a contagious love for life and adventure.
I've missed our spontaneous outings over the past few years. Sadly, we lost contact. I'm heartbroken with the news of this loss. Prayers for her family, especially her daughter. Rest in peace, free spirit.

“ I am so sorry this has happened. I don't know why this happened or what happened, maybe it doesn't matter. What matters most is that we have all lost a bright light. I'm personally devastated because I never made things right between us after a disagreement a few months ago. She was one of the first political friends I made on Facebook and we promptly bonded over many things and similarities. I am glad I got to know her, but I will always feel guilt over our last communication, knowing I could have easily reached out and fixed it. I'm so sorry Holly. And I'm so sorry to her little girl, husband, and many friends and loved ones who knew her longer and closer than I. I'll never forget you my friend. Find peace, my favorite Gypsy.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I must commend you for not being ashamed of bringing Holly's struggle to the forefront. If more people would, possibly the public would be aware of how prevalent and costly addiction has become. Addicts aren't bad people and most really to want to change but it is a fight for strength everyday. You have my heartfelt condolences and may God grant you peace.
