“ Mr. Doyle was a man who you didn't have to dig deep to find something good about him, he just had this light of good emanating from him. He and his wife (I'm sorry I never got to meet, I'm certain I would have enjoyed her) raised children of value who make this world a better place, just as he did. I'm blessed to have experienced what they bring into life. He will be deeply missed. Doyle Family, my heart goes out to you all. Carry out the good always, he loved you all so very much.
