“ James and I had many conversations over the many years he was confined at ManorCare. He had very poor vision along with numerous health issues, but this did not prevent him for keeping up with current events and the state of world affairs. He had a close relationship with the Lord and received Communion regularly. Like all of us he had good and some not-so-good memories of growing up and living in Chambersburg. I believe he had a strong faith in His Savior and am happy that he now is freed from his sufferings. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
