

Ms. Josephine Miriam Diffenderfer

July 14, 1941 - August 12, 2022

Ms. Josephine Miriam “Jo” Diffenderfer, 81 of Chambersburg, departed this life on Friday, August 12, 2022, at her residence. She was formerly a resident of Needmore, Knobsville, and St. Thomas.

Born July 14, 1941, in Lewistown, she was a daughter of the late Harry Wilbur and Esther Henry Woodall. She was a 1959 graduate of St Thomas High School.

Ms. Diffenderfer retired from the United States Postal Service having been the first female carrier in the Chambersburg area. Just prior to her employment with the USPS, she was a secretary for First United Methodist Church, Chambersburg.

Jo enjoyed gardening and was particular about maintaining her manicured lawn.

Surviving are her children, Timothy Diffenderfer and wife Tracy of Lebanon, Tennessee, and Lisa Runk and friend Doug Johnson of Chambersburg; her grandchildren Zachary Runk of Willow Street, Trevor Runk of Bridgeville, Ashley Ogle and husband Taylor of Knoxville, Tennessee, and Timothy J. Diffenderfer and wife Chelsee of Lebanon, Tennessee; great grandchildren Sophia, Selah, Josie and Asher Ogle, and Rylee Diffenderfer; her sister, Brenda Kay Snider and husband Rev. Marlin Snider of Mechanicsburg; as well as her niece Ann Snider and family; nephew David Snider; grand and great grand nieces and nephews; numerous cousins; and companion, Bill Katavitch. Besides her parents, Ms. Diffenderfer was preceded in death by her stepfather, Robert Atherton.

The Sellers Funeral Home and Cremation Services, Chambersburg, assisted with arrangements. A private service was held graveside on Wednesday, August 17, at Norland Cemetery, Chambersburg.
