

Joyce E. Lee

August 7, 1961 - December 28, 2023

Joyce E. Lee was born in Chambersburg, PA, to her loving parents, Robert Barnhart and Gertrude (Ferris) Barnhart on August 7, 1961. She gained her wings on December 28, 2023.

She was a very loving, kind-hearted woman that put others before herself. Joyce never let on that anything was going on with her. She was strong for everyone. Accepted everyone without judgment. Joyce considered everyone family, whether they were related by blood or life's adventures and people you meet along the way. She always welcomed everyone with open arms, even if they didn't agree with her choices in life. She was truly one of a kind and each of us carry her and her unique traits with us whether we know it or not.

She was preceded in death by many of her family members, with the most recent being her mother in March of 2020, her father January 2023 and oldest brother in July of 2023. Joyce has been reunited with all of them, along with others she knew in her earthly journey. Now she watches over everyone.

Joyce is survived by her husband, James, two young sons, Donovan and Duncan (Ashley), four daughters, Tracy (Jeremy), Christina, Betty, Amanda and their significant others, many grandbabies, and great nieces and nephews, along side at least three sisters and youngest brother. There are numerous other children to whom she was a mother figure and she considered all of them as her own. Most relatives are from Pennsylvania.

A Memorial Service was held at the convenience of the family. Online condolences may be expressed at www.sellersfuneralhome.com.
