“ I first meet Katrina at the nursing home with Donna . We bought her chocolate candy and talked with her for about an hour. She kept trying to get us to eat it with her because she likes her sweets. She was very interesting listening to her stories. We meet her again another time with her niece Judy and went out to lunch. . She had a beer and drank it all and enjoyed it so much. I will remember those moments always. just always remember your special moments with her and memories. Marian Brewer

Sad to be just learning about Mrs. Halter passing on. She was a great inspiration to me as a kid back in Pittsburgh PA when I lived at the Abraxas 3 kids home. Her late son Andrew was a friend to me as well back then. They were great people. Such a sweet lady. I wish I could have seen and talked to her again in this life. Prayers and blessing to all of her family. God bless you all in her memory. Sincerely, Curtis A Mack - Charleston WV
