

Larry Walter Cordell Jr.

July 6, 1964 - July 9, 2023

Larry Cordell Jr., 59, passed away July 9, 2023, at home. He was born July 6, 1964, in Waynesboro, the son of Lula Mae Rose and Victor Foglesonger.

He was employed at Burnside America.

Larry enjoyed drawing pictures, growing plants, indoor/outdoor projects, online bingo and casino, fishing, wrestling, drinking, and his dogs. Important things to Larry were the birth of his son, Sean Cordell. When he was 7 years old, Larry entered a contest at the Franklin County Fair to win a 8 foot stuffed California raisin to which he won, and the Franklin County Jail called him to go pick it up. He taught his son how to fish.

His legacy would be: to not be forgotten. Larry would say "Live one day at a time. It is was it is."

Larry is survived by: his father, Victor Foglesonger; step-father, Harold Rose; son, Sean Cordell; sisters, Lisa Roth, Linda Cordell, Angela Mendoza, Jerrica Foglesonger, and Tammy Hawbaker; brothers, Jeremy Foglesonger, Jadrick Foglesonger, Jarden Foglesonger, Justin Foglesonger, and Victor Woerner.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Lula Rose.

A time of visitation with the family will be held on Friday, July 28, 2023 at 2:00-3:00 p.m. at the Sellers Funeral Home.

“ Sean , the Cordell ladies, and the Fogelsonger's,

I'm not sure what to say in the face of such a difficult loss, I am devastated.

Just want you to know that I care and I share in your sadness.

I remember the night this photo was taken, seems like yesterday.
