

Marjorie Koutris

March 23, 1926 - March 28, 2013

Marjorie E. (Rommel) Koutris, 87, of Chambersburg passed away on Wednesday, March 28, 2013 at the Chambersburg Hospital after a brief illness. She was born on March 23, 1926 in Chambersburg, the daughter of the late Robert S. and Dorothy (Shafer) Rommel.

She was a lifetime resident of Chambersburg and a loyal member of the Chambersburg High School Class of 1944.

She was a life-long member of the Zion Reform United Church of Christ. She enjoyed being a Sunday School Teacher.

Marjorie was a secretary at the Franklin County Office of the PA Dept. of Agriculture and a secretary for the Franklin County Democratic Committee.

She enjoyed the full range of responsibilities of a homemaker and mother.

Marjorie is survived by two sons: James R. and Thomas P. Koutris and James' wife, Nancy and their two children, Kaitlyn and Casey; nieces and nephews including Barbara Fesch and Paula Snodderly and their families.

Preceding her in death was her husband, John J. Koutris, sister: Jeanne (Rommel) Nicklas and brother, Paul Rommel.

Funeral Services will be held at 12:00pm on Tuesday, April 2, 2013 at the William F. Sellers Funeral Home with the Rev. Jeffery Diller officiating. There will be a visitation one hour prior to the service. Burial will be in Lincoln Cemetery.
