

Michel D. Gilles

September 7, 1956 - February 20, 2022

"A father, a husband, a friend, a brother, an adviser, a teacher, a companion, a man of faith and a man endowed with great wisdom, all that reflects the character of Michel Gilles. Impossible not to love him at first sight. His heart was full of love and open to all. The very day he was to leave us, without even knowing it, he took the time to communicate with his family and friends, some whom had not heard from him for a while. He worked most of his life in telecommunications, which made him a true communicator, he rose to the title of engineer, a title he would keep all his life through his community. Michel loved his country so much that he hated being away from it. He dreamed of going back there and pursuing his goals. Born on September 7th, 1956 and deceased on February 20th, 2022, we already miss him.

Dear Michel, may your soul rest in peace and may your memories live long in and through us."
