Nathan Miller, 40, Chambersburg, passed away Saturday, January 4, 2020 at home after a three year battle with Primary Sclerosing Cholangitis despite having received a live liver transplant from his uncle, Douglas Walter. Born on March 21, 1979 in Carlisle, he was the son of Richard and Debra Walter Miller. A 1997 graduate of Susquenita High School and Cumberland-Valley Vo-Tech, Nathan won a Bundestag scholarship to study under a German baker for a year. Nathan worked as a chef at Jean George, Aureole, and Danube in New York City before becoming the pastry chef at The Kitchen in Boulder, Colorado. In 2010, he founded Nathan Miller Chocolate in the basement of a friend's home. In 2013, he moved his business to Chambersburg. A two time winner of The Good Foods Award, he was written up in the New York Times and featured in magazines and blogs such as Real Simple and Vogue. He also was invited to cook at the James Beard House in New York City for two different events. He dreamed big and encouraged others to do the same. Besides his parents, he is survived by his brother Travis and his girlfriend, Mariah Dodson. An informal gathering of family and friends to celebrate his life will be held on Saturday, January 11, at 11:00 AM until 2:00 PM at the Capitol Theatre, 159 S. Main Street, Chambersburg, PA. Dress is casual. A celebration will take place in Colorado on May 23, 2020. All are welcome. Details to follow on his Facebook page, at a later time. In lieu of flowers, “ Deb and Rick - Even though we met you just a short time ago at the hospital we immediately took a head turn to Nathan for his strength and strong will to persevere. Jack and I are forever grateful for chatting and smiling as we crossed paths many times while walking the floor on 9 West and the guys earning their transplant trot certificates. May God embrace you and your family with comfort and peace. Deepest sympathy. Hugs.
