“ Standing in the garage, My sister Kellie announced of the passing of my dear friend Nick. My heart stopped and I responded with no it cannot be. Why would God take a wonderful man from our midst so early? The answer is simple, A great man, caring, loving, and honorable is needed in the Heavens to continue spreading goodness, love, and care. My dear friend, though we have traveled near and far, our ships passed close from time to time, no person on Earth could have had a better friend. I will truly miss you, always remember you, and hope any small morsel of your nobility can be carried by me, until we meet again. I will most definitely be on the look out for you , continue to tell stories of a great man...Lost but never forgotten.
