

Ralph Henry "Buzz" Tolbert

February 2, 1930 - September 9, 2017

Ralph (Buzz) Henry Tolbert, 87, passed away on September 9, 2017 at home. Born February 2, 1930 in New Franklin, PA, he was the son of the late John and Maude (McNew) Tolbert. Ralph worked as a farmer all his life. He enjoyed flying and going to air shows, playing the guitar, golfing, fishing, and spending time with family and friends. Ralph enjoyed being outdoors and had a love for nature. He is survived by his fiancé, Betty Huff; a son, Randall (Kelly) Tolbert; two daughters, Debra Clem, Tina Wallech; and several nieces; nephews; and cousins. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Jane Tolbert; a brother, Jay Tolbert; and two sons-in-law, John Clem and Douglas Wallech. Funeral services will be at 11 AM on Friday, September 15, 2017 at the St. Paul Lutheran Church, Fayetteville, with Pastor Eloise Shanley and the Rev. Robert Mentzer officiating. Visitation will be from 5 to 7 PM on Thursday, September 14, 2017 at the William F. Sellers Funeral Home. Internment will be at Lincoln Cemetery. Online condolences may be expressed at To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Ralph Henry "Buzz" Tolbert, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

“ *Deb, Tina and Randy,
Sorry to hear of your Dad's Passing.*

Although we didn't see much of y'all as we did growing up, I will always remember his laughter. He was a cool man who lived in the big castle. He and your mom both meant a lot to my father and mother. Take care and may God bless you each.

Linda and Dianne

Linda Helfrick - September 18, 2017 at 12:00 AM