“ I met Raymond about 1979 after we moved to Franklin County. We lived near the intersection of Ft. McCord and Mountain Roads west of Chambersburg. I don't recall exactly how we met, but I hired him to do yard work at our home. I took a liking to the gangly teenager. He struck me as a smart kid who could go far if given the right opportunities. I went on a hike with him up the side of Broad Mountain. He claimed to have done it before, but about half way up a very steep rocky slope I started having my doubts. The last project he did for me was helping to clear a lot that we built on in Green Knolls on the east side of the valley. After we moved I lost touch with Raymond. I was sorry to read of his passing. My sincere condolences to the Slavin family. May he rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon him.
