“ Dear Grant family,
I am very sorry for your loss. The Bible gives us a wonderful hope for the future. In Isaiah 25:8 it says "He will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away tears from all faces." What a time we can look forward to when death will be gone.

“ Sally and I were first cousins and we had a lot of laughs growing up with our other cousins. We all use to go to Gram and Paps every Sunday and we had such fun. During the Christmas holidays all the families would visit each others homes to look at their tree and decorations. Although as we all grew older and went our separate ways, one thing is for certain, the cousins had a forever bond and love for each other. Sally was a great cook and I remember asking her for her recipe of her special sloppy joes which she gave me and oh her potato salad was over the top! My husband and her both liked to cook and would talk shop when they were together. I always thought if we lived in the same town together they would make a great catering team. I will miss your smile, laugh and humor my dear cousin. I always said you missed your calling as a comedian. Peace be with you and I know you have them all laughing in heaven. I will say to you what you always ended our meetings or conversations with, "Love ya baby."
Peace and Love until we meet again.

“ The Bowers cousins are really close in heart because we spent almost every Sunday of our childhood together at our grand parent Bowers' house on Catherine Street. Sally was always keeping us entertained with her great sense of humor. She had the most beautiful laugh, one that came from the tummy. Like most of us, she grew to be a kind, caring and generous person. She became one of the best caregivers on the face of this earth. Never saying no when needed by our family members. God took her way too soon. She is in Heaven with those we have lost, but she will never be forgotten because she remains in our hearts.

“ Sally was my first cousin and a very dear friend. She was from chambersburg and I was from waynesboro but we saw each other at our grand parents house almost every sunday from birth till in our early 20's. She was a special person who would glady give you the shirt off of her back if you needed it. She was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone, if she knew you or she didn't. She will be sadly missed but she is in a special place with those relatives who have gone before us. rest in peace cuz
