“Mary, John, Terese, Paul, and Elaine, How do you put into words the sorrow and loss that you feel when you lose your father. You already know what a great dad that he was. You also should know he was a great uncle too. He was always eager to lend an ear, share some little bit of knowledge he had just acquired, say something kind, then give you that uncle sig smile! I know that he's home now. I can just hear him "Helen I'm home...Boy did I miss you!" Miss you uncle sig,. Rosemarie
