

Sue Ellen Warren

February 2, 1965 - July 3, 2025

Sue Warren, 60, passed away on Thursday, July 3, 2025 at home. She was born February 2, 1965 in Waynesboro, the daughter of the late Barbara and Merle Bowders.

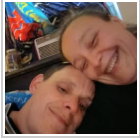

She was a member of Chambersburg Baptist Church, a home healthcare worker for many years and also worked at Ski Liberty and Walmart.

Sue is survived by her sons: Joshua Lee Landerverde and Vernon Lee Packer, a brother, Donald Bowders and his wife Patricia (Marzullo).

Services will be at the convenience of the family.

Online condolences may be expressed at sellersfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ This my mother always was right bout everything even when she was wrong she was right lol but know I love u so much will miss u but I see u again this isn't good bye this is I see you later fly free mom with them up there we be ok till I see u again kisser

---

Lee Packer - July 05, 2025 at 09:08 PM

PS

“ I'll miss our jokes, your sense of humor; and telling it like it is attitude. Helping you color your hair, and you complimenting my cooking and baking. You certainly were a feisty soul and I'll always remember you fondly

---

Penny L. Suffecool - July 05, 2025 at 12:56 PM

SL

“ *Sister Sue you came into our lives like a lion. You changed our lives forever
We will never be the same
You Blessed us you helped us to grow
You shared sooo much with us.
We will truly miss your smiles. Your laughter. Your hugs and kisses.
I am proud to call you my sister in Christ
Watch over us kiddo. You will be truly missed*

---

Susanne L Landaverde - July 05, 2025 at 12:02 PM