

Tracey Lynne Howe

April 27, 1962 - January 15, 2024

Tracey Lynne (Hardsock) Howe, 61 of Chambersburg, passed away at Shippensburg Restore Health Center on Tuesday, January 15, 2024.

She was born in Chambersburg on April 27, 1962 to the late Leo Hardsock and Judith Varner Vaughn.

Tracey worked as a CNA at Sunmount Nursing Home while her children were young and later at Ventura Foods.

She enjoyed playing softball, bowling and going to the neighborhood fairs in the summer with her mom and brother, Danny. Once her children were grown, Tracey spent many years traveling the country by eighteen wheeler with her husband, John, and their beloved dog, Jacob.

Tracey was a devoted mother who loved her children and grandchildren dearly.

Surviving are her three children: Melanie Rogers, Jeremy (Autumn) Rogers and Loren (Lisa) Kilburn; three grandchildren: Kyree and Mariah Cook and Parker Kilburn; step-father, Loren Vaughn, brothers: Danny and Craig Hardsock and a sister, Amanda Buck; step siblings: Adrian, Dale and Jeannie.

In addition to her parents and her husband, John Howe, she was preceded in death by her uncle, Tim Varner, two step brothers: Paul and Monte and three grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the nurses at both Grane Hospice and Shippensburg Restore Health center for the wonderful care that they gave to our mom.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Memorial donation may be made to Shippensburg Restore Health Center, 121 Walnut Bottom Road, Shippensburg, PA 17257 or Grane Hospice, 1200 Camp Hill Bypass, Suite 205, Camp Hill, PA 17011.
