October 17, 1934 - August 2, 2019

William G. Honeycutt, 84, of Chambersburg passed away on Friday, August 2, 2019 at home. He was born October 17, 1934 in Bakersville, NC, the son of the late Samuel and Pearl (Ledford) Honeycutt. He was an inventor and machinist who traveled the world working on all kinds of machines. One of his main jobs was to set up and train clothing manufacturers. He would give you the shirt off his back, was Mr. fix-it and his family was his life. He taught both his children and grandchildren to observe, learn and respect not only nature and animals, but life in general. His motto was "Always be kind." He is survived by his wife Virginia (Chew) Honeycutt; five daughters: Linda (Keith) Marsh, Vicky (Greg) Sellers, Connie (Jeff) Stickley, Karen (Greg) Stine, April (Rick) Foltz; six grandchildren: Jennifer, Zachary, Gregory, Sarah, Joshua, Emily; one great granddaughter, Atlee; sister, Roma and brother, Arthur.
