“ Dearest Jessica and Kody,
Palm 30:5 Weeping endures for a night but joy comes in the morning. Everything changes, and moving forward is the only option. Please know that I am always here for you, wether in person or in heart.

“ Bill (Dad) was a big part of our lives. We were blessed by his presence in many ways. Dad taught me the value of caring for others. I've never met a more unique person. Dad loved his "wolf pack". There are countless memories of laughter and good times. We praised God together, we celebrate many holidays, birthdays, and milestones. Dad loved God! He loved God so much that he practiced many faiths. I know he passed in peace and is now home with his loved ones. Dad is no longer in pain. When the time came, he was ready to go. We made sure that he knew he was loved & not alone. Dad was sent home with prayers, soft music, and both his hands held in love.

Till we meet again. Love, "The bratty one"

Dad wanted people to think of him when they hear it.

“ I want to express condolences to all of you for the death of your father Bill. I had the joy of marrying him and Cinda and of doing Cinda's celebration of life. I talked to Bill three times in the hospital. I was surprised to see that he died so quickly. He expressed his readiness to die on Wednesday. I have many members of your family during the time when you attended Mercersburg Mennonite. A big hug of condolence to each of You. Allen Eshleman
